The general practice nurse is the corner stone to care delivery in general practice, anecdotally taking up to 5 years to develop an experienced GPN. The associated cost attached to this variable across GM, however, typically being upwards of £6000 including time away from practice to study. The Greater Manchester Training Hub (GMTH) in collaboration with the Greater Manchester Health and Social Care Partnership (GMHSCP) we are delivering a 2-year Fellowship programme that will facilitate this development: The salary support is based on pro-rata costs and the educational element is free.
